Release #: 2016-008

Two Juveniles Arrested in Connection with January 11th Shooting in Archer, FL to be Charged as Adults:

On January 13, 2016, Detectives with the Alachua County Sheriff's office Criminal Investigations Division arrested 17-year-old Tavione Anthony Williams of Gainesville and 17-year-old Kasey Mariesha Rowe of Williston in connection with the attempted murder and robbery of Joenathan Young, III, in Archer.

This afternoon, Judge William Davis signed an arrest warrant for both Tavione Williams and Kasey Rowe, binding the juveniles over as adults.

Tavione Williams will be transferred from the Juvenile Detention Center in Alachua County to the Alachua County Sheriff's Office Department of the Jail where he will be booked in on charges of Attempted Homicide, Grand Larceny, and Robbery with a Weapon. He will be held on a $925,000 bond.

Kasey Rowe will be transferred from the Juvenile Detention Center in Marion County to the Marion County Sheriff's Office Department of the Jail where she will await extradition back to Alachua County on the charges of Attempted Homicide, Grand Larceny, and Robbery with a Weapon. She will be held on a $520,000 bond.
