Media Advisory: Deputy Suspended Amidst Allegations of Falsifying an Official Document

On Tuesday, November 1, 2016, Sheriff Sadie Darnell placed Deputy Robert Webb on administrative suspension in light of allegations surrounding the falsification of an official document. In addition, the incident has been referred to the Criminal Investigations Division with regard to the potential violation of Florida State Statute. Our Office of Professional Standards will also be investigating the matter.

Due to these open and active investigations, additional information regarding this incident will not be released until such time as the investigations have been concluded.

Deputy Webb was hired in April of 2004 and is currently assigned to the Judicial Services and Training Division, Civil Bureau.
