Media Advisory: Detention Officer Injured

On Thursday, March 2, 2017, at approximately 2:30 PM, Detention Officer Daniel Carroll sustained serious injuries resulting from a fall off a ladder while supervising an ACSO Inmate Work Crew in front of our Combined Communications Center. Detention Officer Carroll was treated by personnel from Gainesville Fire Rescue and Alachua County Fire Rescue before being transported to UF Health Shands Hospital.

Detention Officer Carroll remains at UF Health Shands Hospital receiving medical care, and doctors are optimistic that he will eventually make a full recovery. His family, as well as members of the Alachua County Sheriff's Office, have been by his bedside since the incident occurred.

Detention Officer Carroll was hired by the Alachua County Sheriff's Office in October of 2008 and currently serves on special assignment with Transportation and Facilities assigned to the Department of the Jail Support Services.
